No. 784, F. & A.M. of OHIO
SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2011

FROM THE EAST

Summer break is about over and it is time for the craft to resume their labors. Our first meeting will be on September 8, 2011 at our usual opening time of 7:00 PM. The business of the meeting will mainly be catching up from the summer and any other business that may come up.

Far Hills Lodge had the privilege to bestow many service pins for brethren who have served Masonry for 50, 60 and 65 years. Bro. Jack A. Daugherty received his 65 year service pin. Brethren who received 60 year pins were Robert d. Goodwin, Ronald I. Minor, William R. Ringo, Thomas H. Routsong, PM, William E. Walser and Mark J. Wells. Recipients of 50 year pins were Ted D. Flommersfeld, Lee E Snyder, Donald R. Warner, Ronald H. Wills and Chester A. Roush. Congratulations and well done, brethren.

Also presented were 25, 35 and 40 year service pins to several brethren. More pins will be presented when our stock is replenished.

TEMPLE

There will be a temple work day on Sept. 17, 2011. On the docket are painting the portico and tree pruning and cleanup of tree branches on the lawn. Before work begins, we will be bolstering up with a healthy serving of coffee and donuts.

SECRETARY

Dues Notices are a coming. Please, as you receive your notice, write the check immediately, and if you can, bring it to our next meeting. That will solve two problems. MONEY AND ATTENDANCE. We need both to keep our lodge viable and visible.

We would also like to see you. If you have any ideas on how to improve our meetings, please pass them on to the WM or THE SW.
